UNIVERSALIST PROFESSION OF BELIEF
AND CONDITIONS OF FELLOWSHIP

I. The Profession of Belief adopted at the session of the General Convention at Winchester, N. H., 1803, is as follows:

Article I. We believe that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments contain a revelation of the character of God and of the duty, interest and final destination of mankind.

Article II. We believe that there is one God, whose nature is Love, revealed in one Lord Jesus Christ, by one Holy Spirit of Grace, who will finally restore the whole family of mankind to holiness and happiness.

Article III. We believe that holiness and true happiness are inseparably connected, and that believers ought to be careful to maintain order and practise good works; for these things are good and profitable unto men.

II. The conditions of fellowship shall be as follows: (Adopted as an amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the General Convention, at its session in Boston, Oct. 23, 1899.)

1. The acceptance of the essential priniciples of the Universalist Faith, to wit: 1. The Universal Fatherhood of God; 2. The Spiritual authority and leadership of His Son, Jesus Christ; 3. The trustworthiness of the Bible as containing a revelation from God; 4. The certainty of just retribution for sin; 5. The final harmony of all souls with God.

The Winchester Profession is commended as containing these principles, but neither this nor any other precise form of words is required as a condition of fellowship, provided always that the principles above stated be professed.

2. The acknowledgment of the authority of the General Convention and assent to its laws.

DAYS OF SPECIAL OBSERVANCE

Recommendations by the Universalist General Convention

1. It is recommended that Christmas Sunday, i. e., the Sunday nearest Christmas, be observed by appropriate services.

2. It is recommended that on Easter Sunday a Service of Recognition be held, at which time persons baptized in childhood, and others, may be welcomed by suitable rites to membership of the Church.

3. It is recommended that one Sunday be set apart in each year to be denominated Children's Sunday,—in all cases, where practicable, the second Sunday in June, or as near thereto as possible; that parents and guardians be encouraged and invited to bring their children to the altar on that day for baptism or dedication to the service of the Lord.

4. It is recommended that the first Sunday of October, in each year, be set apart as Memorial Sunday, for commemorating those friends who, during the year, have been taken away by death.

5. It is recommended that the first Sunday of November, in each year, be set apart as All-Souls Sunday, for a special celebration of our distinguishing doctrine, the Scriptural truth that all souls are God's children, and that finally, by His grace attending them, they will all be saved from the power of sin, and will live and reign with Him forever in holiness and happiness.

6. It is recommended that the third Sunday of May, in each year, be set apart as Educational Sunday, for the pr sentation to the people of the educational interests of our Church. And that on the same day an appeal be made to our Sunday Schools for aid in the Home Missionary Work of our Church.

7. It is recommended that the fourth Sunday in November, in each year, be set apart as Japan Sunday, for the presentation of the claims of our Foreign work and for soliciting pecuniary aid therefor.

FOR 1912

THE GENERAL CONVENTION

"The Universalist General Convention," having jurisdiction over the ecclesiastical organizations of the Universalist Church in the United States and Canadian Provinces, and wherever else it has churches or missions, meets biennially. The next session—1913—is to be held in Chicago, Ill., on the Wednesday preceding the fourth Sunday in October. The Convention is composed of the Officers of the General Convention, of the Presidents, the Vice-Presidents and the Secretaries of the several State Conventions; and of clerical and lay delegates from the State Conventions, each State being entitled to two clerical and four lay delegates and to an additional number of each class of delegates in proportion to the aggregate of its parishes and clergymen. At least four parishes must be organized and established in a State before a State Convention can be formed, but a less number of parishes may unite to choose two delegates, clerical or lay, to represent them in the General Convention; and if there be one parish so situated, it is entitled to two delegates. In all such States or Territories the General Convention has original jurisdiction.

All laws relating to fellowship, ordination and discipline originate in the General Convention, and it is the final court of appeal in all cases of dispute or difficulty between State Conventions. It is an incorporated body, empowered to hold real and personal estate to the value of five hundred thousand dollars, "to be devoted exclusively to the diffusion of Christian knowledge, by means of missionaries, publications and other agencies." In the interim of sessions the interests of the Convention are watched over and managed by a Board of Trustees.

The Murray Centenary Fund, created in 1870 as a memorial of the one hundredth anniversary of Rev. John Murray's first sermon in America, is the leading fund of the Universalist Church. To this fund there have from time time been added others of various sums, and under different names, so that the total to-day is in the neighborhood of $395,000. The sums have been named in former numbers of The Register. The Report of the General Convention of the Universalist Church extends into detail concerning them. The appropriations for the Convention year (1911–1912) are from whatever income from any source may be deemed available by the Board of Trustees.

The following are the officers of the Convention:—

President—Rev. Marion D. Shutter, D.D., 1906 Park Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

Vice-President—Hon. Ora E. Butterfield, Detroit, Mich.

Murray Grove Association. This Association was organzied Aug. 24, 1886, at the Potter Memorial Church, Good Luck, N. J., to provide means, adopt and execute measures for the preservation of memorials and property endeared to Universalists at Good Luck, N. J., and for holding yearly meetings thereat during each summer in the interest of the Church at large. The Association is incorporated, and at the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 1909, owned $5,000 free of debt. Included in this amount is an Endowment Fund of $1000, now drawing interest at 5 per cent. per annum toward defraying any deficit in the running expenses. At the meetings of August, 1909, the Potter Mansion and farm were purchased at a cost of $4,000, of which $1,000 was contributed then and there and the balance of $3,000 was advanced by two lady members of the Association as a loan for two years without interest. The Potter Mansion is now undergoing repair. The deed for the Jeffrey Mansion and farm having also been executed, the Association now practically owns not less than 225 acres of land with two mansions, the Murray Grove House, and the Potter Memorial Church. By an amicable arrangement it has also the unrestricted use of the Old Potter Meeting House during the August meetings. Cuba

Our Cuban mission is in the care of Rev. Jacob Straub, D.D., residing at Columbia-on-the-Bay. Columbia sympathizes with the general depression of the other colonies, chiefly from political causes, and is much diminished in numbers. The mission still has its important and hopeful features. Though the Church at Columbia is represented by several denominations co-operating it is under a recognized Universalist pastor who is known as such in all the colonies and beyond, where his visits and pastorate influence extend. The result will be a Universalist constituencey ready when prosperity returns to the Island.

Japan

The Japanese Mission was begun by the General Convention in 1890. The present missionary staff are Rev. and Mrs. G. I. Keirn, D.D., Rev. and Mrs. Nelson L. Lobdell, Miss Catherine M. Osborn, and Miss M. Agnes Hathaway. The following are the ordained Japanese clergymen: Rev. M. Midzuhira Rev. Hisanari Hoshino, Rev. N. Nagano, Rev. Sempo Ito, and Rev. Kyoshi Satoh. The first two are not in active service. The Universalist Convention of Japan meets annually in April. The officers are: Pres.—Rev. N. L. Lobdell; Sec.—Rev. S. Akashi; Treas.—Miss M. A. Hathaway. Resident pastors are employed in three places: Tokyo, Shidzuoka and Nagoya. Rev. Y. Mashino is forming the nucleus of a second church in Tokyo. Akita has a church organization and is called a "visiting station." As the Mission has been unable to supply a resident pastor for Hoden since it came to us from another denomination, it asked permission to withdraw from the denomination, and the request was granted. Through The Universalist, a monthly periodical, and other literature an excellent influence is sent forth to inquirers. The Blackmer Home is a fine benefaction. It is situated at 50 Takata, Oimatsu-cho, Koishi-kawa, Tokyo, and in the absence of a hoped-for headquarters, it serves in many practical ways as such. The pastors and associates of the missionaries have the interests of the work at heart and make their influence felt in the communities where they labor. Rev. Mr. Satoh and wife, Mrs. Tame Satoh, were students in America and are known to many Universalists. They are teachers in the Girls' School in Tokyo. The Universalist Leader of Nov. 11, 1911, Nov. 26, 1910, Nov. 27, 1909, Dec. 7, 1907, and Oct. 27, 1906, were Japan issues and contain valuable information. The energy of the missionaries and their associates is directed to the work of establishing self-sustaining Universalist churches in Japan and to the diffusion of sound principles of domestic and civic life.

Recently Dr. Keirn has made two extensive missionary journeys in the Empire, accompanied by an interpreter. He delivered lectures and distributed literature and held personal interviews. On his return a great shower of letters of inquiry resulted. He feels that the field was never more promising for cultivation than now. The Springfield Convention gave the Japan Mission the heartiest support and asked the churches to give it the means of continuing its important work.

In the case of Louisiana, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon and Virginia, the data for these states will be found under the department of State Organizations.

NOTE: Where a fraction appears after the name of a parish it indicates that preaching services are held part of the time; (oc.) denotes that there is only occasional preaching; (m.) monthly services; (sum.) summer services only; (dor.) that the society is inactive. The † indicates the parishes from which no returns were made, and which are copied from the Register of 1911.

Colleges, Theological Schools and Academies

(The educational institutions herewith named were founded by Universalists, and in their theological departments are under Universalist control.)

TUFTS COLLEGE.

ACCEPTED BY THE CARNEGIE FOUNDATION

This college is situated at Tufts College, in the cities of Medford and Somerville, Mass. It was incorporated in 1852, and opened for students in 1855. Departments: School of Liberal Arts; Jackson College for Women; Crane Theological School; Medical School, (located in Boston); Dental School (located in Boston); Engineering School; Bromfield-Pearson School, connected with the Engineering School; Graduate School. For catalogue, address Philip M. Hayden, Secretary, Tufts College, Mass.

THE CRANE THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL.

The Crane Theological School is one of the coordinate departments of Tufts College. Students of the School are members of the College, enjoying its privileges and subject to its regulations.

ADMISSION

1. The Crane Theological School is open on equal terms to students of every denomination of Christians. Candidates unknown to the Faculty must present satisfactory testimonials as to character.

2. Students holding a Bachelor's degree are admitted to a three years' course without examination, as candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.

3. Undergraduates who enter for a degree must conform to the regular conditions of admission to the School of Liberal Arts.

4. Special students, not candidates for a degree, may be admitted to such work as they are fitted to undertake.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF DIVINITY

The School of Liberal Arts has lately decided that certain studies, hitherto pursued in the Theological School only, are properly regarded as culture-studies and therefore offers them to all its students. Taking advantage of this fact, the student who enters college with Greek, and with other good preparation, may so shape his course as to obtain the degree of Bachelor of Arts in four years, and that of Bachelor of Divinity in two more years.

Graduates from other institutions may obtain the degree of Bachelor of Divinity after having completed those parts of the course of this School which have not been included in their previous studies. The time thus required for those holding the degree of A. B. is three years.

Faculty.—Frederick W. Hamilton, D.D., LL.D., President and Acting Dean; Charles H. Leonard, A.M., D.D., Dean Emeritus; Philip M. Hayden, A.B., Professor of French, and Secretary; George M. Harmon, A.M., D.D., Professor of Biblical Theology; Hinckley G. Mitchell, A.M., S.T.V., Ph.D., D.D., Professor of Hebrew and Old Testement Exegesis; A. A. Berle, A.B., D.D., Woodbridge Professor of Applied Christianity; Lucius M. Bristol, A.M., S.T.B., Instructor in Applied Christianity; Henry I. Cushman, D.D., Instructor in Homiletics.

The following members of the faculty of the School of Liberal Arts give courses that are open to Theological Students: Edwin C. Bolles, Ph.D., D.D., LL.D., Dickson Professor of English and American History; J. Sterling Kingsley, S.D., Professor of Biology; Alfred C. Lane, A.M., Ph.D., Pearson Professor of Geology and Mineralogy; Herbert E. Cushman, B.D., A.M., Ph.D., Professor of Philosophy; Albert H. Gilmer, A.M., Instructor in English; Henry C. Metcalf, Ph.D., Professor of Political Science; Arthur J. Andrews, Ph.D., Associate Professor of History; Charles St. Clair Wade, A.M., Professor of Greek Language and Literature; F. W. Durkee, A.M., Professor of Inorganic Chemistry; P. H. Cobb, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Inorganic Chemistry; Harry G. Chase, B.S., Professor of Physics; William G. Tousey, A.M., D.D., Professor of Logic and Ethics; William K. Denison, A.M., Professor of the Latin Language and Literature; Richard C. Jones, Ph. D., Professor of English Literature; Charles E. Fay, A.N., Litt.D., Wade Professor of Modern Languages; Leo R. Lewis, A.M., Professor of the History and Theory of Music; Frank G. Wren, A.M., Walker Professor of Mathematics; Oscar Martin, M.D., Director of the Gymnasium.

For information regarding course of study, degrees, expenses and scholarships, address the Secretary, Tufts College, Mass.

ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY.

St. Lawrence University, founded in 1856, Rev. Almon Gunnison, D.D., LL.D., President, is located at Canton, N. Y. It comprises four departments: The College of Letters and Science, the Theological School, the Law School, and the School of Agriculture. The Law School is located in Brooklyn, N. Y. These departments are independent in that they have separate faculties and funds. They are all under one administrative head, the President of the University.

Men and women are admitted to all departments. The courses are the equal of the best colleges and universities, the instruction is thorough, and the mental training practical and efficient.

OFFICERS OF THE COLLEGE OF LETTERS AND SCIENCE.—Hon. Edwin Atkins Merritt, LL.D., Potsdam, President; Frank Nash Cleaveland, M.A., Canton, Secretary; George Sheldon Conkey, B.A., Canton, Treasurer. Trustees; Hon. Edwin Atkins Merritt, LL.D., Potsdam; Hon. Allen Eugene Kilby, M.A., LL. B., Carthage; Hon. Charles Hazen Russell, B.A., New York; Hon. Vasco Pickett Abbott, M.A., LL.B., Gouverneur; Hon. Ledyard Park Hale, M.S., LL.B., Canton; Rev. Herbert Philbrook Morrell, Buffalo; Frank Oliver Hall, D.D., New York;

James Franklin McKinney, M.A., New York; Wriley Nathaniel Beard, Esq., Canton; Charles William Appleton, B.S., LL.B., New York.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—The President of the Corporation, Messrs. Hale, Cleaveland, Conkey, Beard, Payson, and President Gunnison.

HERRING LIBRARY.—Librarian, Eleanor Poste. The library, founded by the late Silas C. Herring, and embracing thirty thousand volumes, is contained in Herring Library Hall and the Cole Reading Room.

THE COLLEGE OF LETTERS AND SCIENCE.—Courses. The College of Letters and Science offers courses leading to the degrees of B.A., and B.S. The last three years of each course are largely elective.

Calendar.—The college year is divided into two terms. The second term will begin the second week in February. Commencement will be the second week in June. The first term of the succeeding year will begin the third week in September.

Expenses.—Tuition, Fifty Dollars a year. Board from $3.75 to $4.50 per week. Forty Free Scholarships.

TRUSTEES OF THE THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL.—Charles Augustus Miller, Esq., Brooklyn, President. George Henry Bowers, Esq., Canton, Secretary. Frank Josiah Tanner, Esq., Buffalo; Rev. Arthur Wilder Grose, D.D., Rochester; Alexander Martin, Esq., Lima; Brayton Allen Field, B.A., Watertown; Rev. Almon Gunnison, D.D., LL.D., Canton; Rev. John Murray Atwood, D.D., Canton; Rev. George Delbert Walker, Hudson.

THE CANTON THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL.—The regular course of instruction, for Diploma, covers three years. For the degree of B.D., four years. These courses include the departments of Ethics, History, Theology, Comparative Religion, Homiletics, Apologetics, Church Administration, Psychology, Sociology and Interpretation and Criticism. Students so situated as to require it, may enter for a shorter term than the regular course, and will be entitled to a certificate stating their attainments.

Conditions of Admission.—The students particularly desired are those who give promise of usefulness in the ministry of the Universalist Church. The best preliminary preparation is a classical course in college. Students whose opportunities have not admitted of such preparation are received if they possess a High School or equivalent education in English. Sound moral principle and approved Christian standing are indispensable.

Lectures.—Courses of lectures on preaching and pastoral work are given each year by eminent clergymen,—Universalist and other.

This is our oldest theological school, having been founded in 1856. It is now well endowed; has an elegant and substantial building for its exclusive use and one of the best theological libraries in the country. German and French may be studied in Canton under the most favorable conditions. Students in the theological school are permitted to pursue any study in the college without charge. No charge is made for tuition or for use of the library. Board $4.00 per week. Students may obtain assistance from the General Convention, when needed, to the extent of $125 a year. Free books are furnished students.

THE BROOKLYN LAW SCHOOL.—A department of St. Lawrence University. The school has an able faculty and has fine accommodations in the building of The Brooklyn Eagle. The tuition is One Hundred Dollars. Catalogues may be obtained of the President of the University or th Dean of the Law School, Wm. P. Richardson.

THE SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE. The State of New York has established an agricultural school as a department of the University. It has buildings and equipment costing $200,000. It has 200 students. It is located on the college campus. It has all the departments of a high grade agricultural school with manual training, blacksmithing and domestic science. An experimental farm of 188 acres is connected with the school and a Dairy Building has been erected. The tuition is free to all residents of the state. Catalogues may be obtained from the President of the University or the Dean of the School of Agriculture.

CLINTON LIBERAL INSTITUTE.

This institution has been moved to Canton by order of its trustees and its work united with that of the University.

LOMBARD COLLEGE.

Lombard College is located in Galesburg, Ill. It received its charter Feb. 15, 1851, and the institution was opened for the reception of students in the autumn of 1852. From the first, women were admitted to all departments of the University on the same conditions that were appointed for young men, this being the second college in the United States to adopt the principle of coeducation. The first class, consisting of two women and four men, was graduated in 1856. Fifty-two classes have been graduated, with a total membership of 457. As organized at present, the College embraces four departments of instruction : The College of Liberal Arts, the Preparatory School, the Ryder Divinity School, and the School of Music and Art. The College year begins the first week in September and closes on Commencement Day, the first Thursday in June.

Faculty of Lombard College.—Lewis B. Fisher, D.D., LL.D., President; Edson Reifsnider, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts; Arthur Wilson, Ph.D., Professor of Chemistry and Physics; Isaac A. Parker, A.M., Ph.D., Professor Emeritus; Philip Green Wright, A.M., Mathematics and Economics; Frederic Hamilton Fowler, Ph.D., Latin and Greek; Edson Reifsnider, B.D., Sociology and Psychology; Frank Sturtevant, A.B., French and English; Mrs. Wilhemine Key, Ph.B., German and Biology; Mr. Carl Enteman, History; Miss Singer, Physical Culture and Oratory; Mr. Earl Hodson, Voice Culture; Miss Ruth Chamberlain, Paino and Organ; Miss Willie Harris, Assistant in English.

Cunningham.

Gymnasium and Ladies' Hall.—The gymnasium, completed in 1897, is one of the handsomest, completest, and best appointed buildings for the purpose in the West. Physical education is made a specialty. The new Ladies' Hall, completed in 1896, is also a thoroughly modern and well-equipped building, which offers the advantages of a refined home under maternal oversight.

Expenses.—Tuition fees are low, being $4.00 per semester for each full course, proportionate for fractional courses. Board and room in Ladies' Hall, with heat (steam) and light (gas), $4.00 to $5.00 per week. In private families, from $3.50 a week upwards.

The Ryder Divinity School.—Rev. Edson Reifsnider, Dean. The Divinity School of Lombard College was opened for the admission of students on the 5th of September, 1881. The first class was graduated in 1885.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees in 1890, it was voted to name the theological department of the College the Ryder Divinity School in honor of the late William Henry Ryder, D.D., whose munificent bequests to the College exceed fifty thousand dollars. The largest benefaction to the Divinity School from any other source was received from the late Hon. A. G. Throop. In 1890 Mr. Throop gave twenty thousand dollars toward the endowment.

Tuition in the Divinity School is free to those studying for the Christian ministry. Admission requirements will be explained on request.

Catalogues sent on application to the President, Galesburg, Ill.

BUCHTEL COLLEGE, AKRON, OHIO.

The Ohio Universalist Convention founded Buchtel College in 1870. Through the generosity of her citizens, Akron secured the location of the College, and it was named after her most generous benefactor the Hon. John R. Buchtel.

Sept. 11, 1872, the College opened her doors for students of both sexes. From that time on, she has steadily gained in efficiency and reputation.

Three four-year courses of study are offered, leading to the degrees of A.B., Ph.B., and S.B.

A large Athletic Field and a capacious and well appointed Gymnasium with a special instructor for both sexes are provided for physical training.

BUCHTEL ACADEMY is in a separate building with a separate faculty, and offers courses accredited by the best colleges.

CURTIS COTTAGE is a modern and delightfully appointed home for young women.

DEAN ACADEMY

Dean Academy is a boarding and day school of the highest grade for young women and young men. It is situated in Franklin, Mass., about half way between Boston and Providence, on the N. Y., N. H., & H. Railroad, and is easily accessible from New England, New York and the West.

The Academy was incorporated in 1865 and takes its name from the late Dr. Oliver Dean of Franklin, who provided for its foundation with generous munificence. The school building is a fine structure with every convenience and comfort for the maintenance of the school. It is lighted with gas and heated by steam. A substantial and commodious gymnasium and the Ray Science Building for laboratory purposes comprise the equipment in buildings. The large endowment of over $100,000 enables the school to provide liberally the best instruction and a most comfortable home.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.—President—Henry I. Cushman, D. D, Providence, R. I.; Vice-President—Rev. F. W. Hamilton, D.D., LL.D., Tufts College; Treasurer, Bernard F. Merriam, South Framingham; Secretary, Chas. E. Hatfield, Newton; Arthur J. Comins, Worcester; George L. Perin, D.D., Boston; E. F. Endicott, Chelsea; Edwin L. Pillsbury, Charlestown; C. H. Puffer, D. D., Salem; George W. Wiggin, Franklin; Henry F. Harris, Worcester; William H. Sweatt, Franklin; Austin Barclay Fletcher, LL. D., New York; Edward H. Rathbun, Woonsocket, R. I.; Adelbert D. Thayer, Franklin; Arthur E. Mason, Newton; Frank H. Andrews, Providence, R. I.; Prof. Warren S. Woodbridge, D.D., Medford; Rev. R. K. Marvin, Franklin; Horace L. Bearse, Brookline; Rev. W. C. Selleck, D.D., Providence, R. I.; Prof. Frank C. Wren, A.M., Tufts College; Fred P. Chapman, Franklin; Arthur W. Peirce, Franklin.

Board of Instruction.—Arthur W. Peirce, Litt. D., Principal, Chase Professor of Latin; Alex. C. Ewen, A.B., associate Principal; Roy F. Stevens, A.B., professor of Science; Luther I. Bonney, A.B., Greek and Latin; Miss Sara A. Hamlin, preceptress, teacher of Literature and History; Cora F. Adams, teacher of German and French; Vivian Cameron, Elocution; J. Dudley Hall, Piano, Organ, Harmony; K. Grace Sayward, Commercial Branches; Ruth A. Ames, English; Alice Morton, teacher of Vocal Music; Florence L. Goding, teacher of Drawing and Painting; Delia A. Conger, A.B., English; Llewellyn R. Perkins, A.B., Mathematics; M. Carmen Burr, Physical Culture; Edith L. Winn, Violin.

The courses of study are; English, of four years; academic, of four years; college preparatory, of four years; technical preparatory, of four years. A preparatory course of one year is arranged for those not fitted to enter one of the regular courses. Special attention is given to fitting students for college. Provision is also made for advanced courses for students who are graduates of High Schools or Academies.

Terms, including all expenses of board, lights, heat, instruction laundry, but exclusive of special branches, such as music, painting, etc., per year, $300, divided as follows: First term, $115; second term, $100; third term, $85.

GODDARD SEMINARY.

The Seminary is situated at Barre, Vt., the Granite City, and is easy of access by rail from points within the State or at a distance.

Four courses of study are offered. The academic course includes a knowledge of the ordinary English branches and the Sciences, with at least four years spent on languages. By omitting two years of the languages, an English course is formed similar to the ordinary course in schools of this grade. The college preparatory course fits the student for any college, while including some useful studies not required for admission. The academic course is designed for such students as do not purpose attending college, but desire the best education a secondary school can give them. There is opportunity in this course, therefore, for studying the ancient and modern languages, mathematics, science, English literature rhetoric and history. A state teachers' course with practise work in the public schools of Barre city and town, gives a three years' certificate to teach in the Vermont schools.

Each of the courses occupies four years, and a diploma is given at the completion of any one of them.

Both sexes are admitted. The atmosphere of the school is made as homelike as possible, while suitable restraints are imposed. A multiplicity of rules is avoided, however, much being left to each student's honor and sense of propriety.

The department of instrumental music is well conducted. The reputation of this department is very high. Diplomas will be given to students satisfactorily completing the course in Music.

Vocal music is also taught by a teacher of reputation and experience. Her work gives general satisfaction.

The school is supplied with anatomical models, charts, globes, microscopes, a cabinet of minerals, apparatus for chemistry and natural philosophy, and a library of three thousand volumes.

A gymnasium, erected and equipped by the alumni and friends, gives ample opportunity for physical development. Care will be taken to have proper physical examination, and exercises will be in charge of competent instructors.

A commerical department, recently established, gives instruction in all branches taught in the best business colleges.

The Thompson Memorial Building furnishes every facility to twenty-eight students to board themselves.

Fund.—The permanent fund amounts to $112,000 and will be materially increased by bequests subject to life interest.

Expenses.—Board, $4.00 per week, including room rent, steam heat, light and washing. The charge for tuition is $15 per term. Twelve free scholarships pay the tuition of those pupils meeting the requirements. School charges for the year amount to $200.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.—Charles H. Darling, LL.D., Burlington, President of the Board; Hon. Clark King, Montpelier; Ira C. Calef, Washington; Hon. S. F. Frary, Strafford; Rev. J. E. WESTBROOK SEMINARY

This institution, the oldest active school in the denomination, is a boarding and day school of the highest standards for both sexes. Its charter was granted in 1831 by the State of Maine, and in 1863 was amended so as to give the Seminary the authority of a woman's college. Located in that part of Portland which was formerly Westbrook, and was later erected into the city of Deering, it enjoys the advantages of the city and country alike, while the centering of railroad and steamship lines at Portland makes it easily accessible from anywhere.

The grounds are spacious; the buildings convenient and comfortable. Hersey and Goddard Halls, the dormitories respectively of the young ladies and of the young men, are connected by the Dining Hall, and afford accommodations for about one hundred students. These halls are well equipped with modern improvements and are kept in thorough repair. Alumni Hall contains the principal recitation rooms, the laboratories of Chemistry, Physics, Biology and Photography, as well as the Cabinet of Minerals, Fossils and Zoological Specimens. The other buildings are the McArthur Gymnasium, and the Moulton Chapel.

The course of study is carefully planned to allow a large freedom of election, but at the same time to ensure each graduate a good general education as well as a preparation more than sufficient for admission to college. Special advantages in the way of advanced work are offered to graduates of other schools who wish to anticipate some of their college work. Among the courses offered are:—four years in English, six in Mathematics, nine in Science, five in History, six in Latin, four each in Greek, German, French, Piano, Voice Culture, and Elocution, and one in Pedagogy and School Management.

The regular expenses for the school year amount to $240, not including books.

Trustees.—Mrs. Albert Todd, Kennebunkport; Mrs. Alice J. Houghton. Portland; Hon. Fred Emery Beane, Hallowell; William M. Ayer, Oakland; Hon. Edward B. Winslow, Portland; Rev. Hervey H. Hoyt, Hiram; Isaac L. Elder, A.M., Portland; Cyrus B. Varney, A.M., Portland; Rev. Henry Blanchard, D.D., Portland; Rev. Herbert F. Moulton, Biddeford; Mrs. Persis M. Martin, Augusta; Hon. NECROLOGY

Since the issue of the Register for 1911, the following ministers have died:

Rev. A. N. Alcott was born at Berea, Ohio, Dec. 4, 1838. He was a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College and the Western Theological Seminary of Pittsburg, Pa. He was ordained a Presbyterian minister and served for some years in that fellowship, but his mind was rebellious against the narrow theological limits, and his heart yearned for a more generous thought of God, and life and destiny. He was drawn to a settlement in a Liberal church at Kalamazoo, Mich., from there he went to the Universalist Church at Elgin, Ill., where he remained twelve years. During his pastorate the fine brick building was erected. At the close of this pastorate, he became an Independent and preached in various places representing the "Liberal Congress," afterwards returning to the Universalist Fellowship, and taking the pastorate of All Souls Church in Minneapolis, remaining there for seven years. His last settlement was at Macomb, Ill. where a long illness terminated in his death, Dec. 29, 1910. Mr. Alcott was a man of scholarly attainments, a loyal and devoted seeker after the truth, an industrious worker, a faithful pastor and a good friend.

Mrs. Eva V. Whitney, who died on Jan. 16, at her home in Wessington Springs, So. Dakota, was licensed to preach in 1902, and acted as the minister of our church in Wessington Springs for some time. Eva V. Kimball was born in Reading, Mass., Sept. 8, 1853, and was educated in the public schools. She removed to Minnesota where she was married to Mr. Frank W. Whitney. In 1874 they removed to Wessington Springs, in 1889. And it was here she give her service to building up the Universalist church, later being licensed to preach that she might the better carry on her work. She led a consistent and useful Christian life.

Rev. Richard A. Lenz. At the early age of twenty-three the Rev. Richard A. Lenz died suddenly at his home in Nunda, N. Y., March 23, 1911, where he was pastor of our church. Mr. Lenz graduated at the age of 21 from Canton Theological School and immediately entered upon the work of the ministry, which work lasted but two years when his seemingly untimely death occurred. During this brief time he showed the possession of some rare qualities as a preacher and a pastor. He was of exceedingly nervous temperament and most conscientious in all that he did and so modest of his own efforts, that even his successes seemed to him to be failures which wore upon him. He was sustained by a devoted and heroic wife, who survives him. He leaves among those who knew him a memory of a faithful and helpful ministry.

The Rev. Henry R. Walworth who died at Hurlock, Md., May 3, 1911, was one of the real forces in our ministry in the earlier days. He was born in 1827 and was therefore eighty-four years of age at the time of his death. He was ordained in 1847, which must have made him a very young minister. He was fitted among those who made up our first theological school under Dr. Sawyer, at Clinton, N. Y. After his ordination it is known that he held pastorates in Maine, New Jersey and Maryland, and probably in other states. His last pastorate and probably his most important was in Baltimore. On account of a throat trouble he was obliged to give up the regular work of the ministry, and at Hurlock, Md., conducted a paper, and became a prominent and useful citizen, having founded the public library in his own home. During this time he frequently supplied the pulpits in surrounding cities with great acceptance. His funeral was held May 5, and was attended by the Rev. Dr. E. C. Sweetser, of Philadelphia. The interment was at Hurlock, Md.

Rev. Moses H. Harris, D.D. The death of Rev. Dr. Moses H. Harris was a severe blow not only to the parish in Watertown, N. Y., to which he ministered, but to our whole Church, for his long ministry in the Universalist Church made him a conspicuous and vital part of the Church life.

Moses Henry Harris was born at Greene, Me., May 14, 1845. He fitted for college at Edward Little Institute, Auburn, Me., but on graduating, entered upon mercantile pursuits at Lewiston, Me. His tastes however soon turned his thoughts to the ministry, and he entered the Canton Theological School, from which he graduated with honors in 1870 and immediately became pastor of the church in Brattleboro, Vt., and soon became the Secretary of the Vermont State Convention, which position he held for eight years. In 1879 he became pastor of the First Church in Worcester, Mass. where he accomplished a great work. In 1890 he was called to the Church of the Redeemer, Chicago. At this place, in Reading, Pa., and All Soul's in Worcester, Mass., he continued his successful career, and in 1902 was called to Watertown, where he crowned his life-work with the splendid achievement of one of the most beautiful churches in the denomination.

In 1891 St. Lawrence University conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity, and he has received elective and appointive honors from many of our denominational institutions.

Dr. Harris was married in 1871 to Zelia E. Wilson of Canton, who survives him. Mrs. Harris was in truth his help-meet supplementing his talents with her own rare ability, and together they lived a ministry which does them honor in having done the world so much good.

After a month's illness, Dr. Harris passed away from this life, at Clifton Springs, N. Y., May 8, 1911.

Rev. Frederick Clarence Priest, D.D., was born at Winchester, N. H., Aug. 26, 1861, and in his young manhood identified himself with the Universalist Church. His opportunities for education were limited but he was a student by taste and of great industry, and while he was employed in mechanical pursuits, he looked for a larger field of service, and in 1886 he entered the Theological School of Tufts College, graduating four years later. His first settlement was at Derby Line, Vt., from there he went to Marblehead and Saugus, Mass., and 1899 was called to the pastorate of the Church of the Redeemer in Chicago, over which he presided with much ability and success until 1906 when a serious illness concluded his work and was the cause of his death which occurred May 15, 1911.

In 1883 Mr. Priest was married to Miss Addie Leith who nobly supported him in his purpose to become a minister and in its work. She died in Chicago in 1902. In 1906 Dr. Priest married Miss Matilda J. Brown of his parish, who survives him.

Dr. Priest was a most devoted minister. A friend says of him: "An able preacher, and indefatigable and conscientious worker, a true disciple of Jesus Christ, he has sown seeds of life which shall bear abundant fruitage in the lives of many."

Rev. William Hooper Dearborn, D.D., who died at St. Albans, Vt., May 20, 1911, was a man of rare attainments, and real achievements in the life of our church. His long pastorate of 16 years in Hartford, Conn., made him conspicuous as one of the strong men of our ministry. He took a large church and breathed into it the breath of spiritual life which has endured and will endure through the years to come. He had also filled successfully pastorates in Jamaica Plain, Augusta, Me., Medford, Peabody, Mass., New York City, and St. Albans, Vt., where he was at work when the summons came for him to go, and he was ready.

As a preacher Dr. Dearborn was a man of exceptional power; to an exquisite grace of style in composition he added gracefulness of manner and always cultivated speech. His sermons were deeply spiritual; his Gospel was the Gospel of the heart and soul, held in masterly mental grasp. He left a lasting impression upon those who heard him preach.

As a man he had all the charm which commands friendship; though modest to a fault, he won to himself a large and loyal circle of those who appreciated and loved him. It was his to go through the dark valley of the shadow, as one by one his family was taken from him until he was almost alone, but the faith which he preached to others upheld him in the hour of need. He is held in fond remembrance as a true minister of Jesus Christ and preacher of his Gospel, as a true man who has blessed the world by his presence in it.

Rev. Elizabeth M. Bruce long time pastor of the Wayside Chapel in Malden, Mass., editor for over thirty years of our Sunday school paper, The Myrtle, and minister of good news and goodness to a large community of people and interests, passed to the higher life, on Sunday, Aug. 20, 1911.

Mrs. Bruce was born Sept. 30, 1830 and was therefore nearly eighty-one years of age. She was educated at Clinton Liberal Institute, Ingham University and Antioch College. In 1853 she was married to Rev. James E. Bruce, and as the pastor's wife in many places in New England, proved herself a real minister. When Mr. Bruce passed away from Melrose, Mrs. Bruce built her a cottage and a chapel high up on the rocks in what seemed a most inaccessible place, and there in 1891 was ordained to the ministry, and began what is probably the most unique pastorate in our history.

She conducted service every day in all the years, and to every service someone came, and during the more than twenty years of her pastorate, more than eighty thousand people have joined with her in her hour of worship, and through these services many souls have been uplifted and helped. But this was not all of her ministry; through The Myrtle she has ministered to the young people all over the land, and as a visitor in homes, schools, prisons and institutions of benevolence, she has been a constant blessing. Her death came as a benediction upon a fulfilled and completed life.

Rev. John M. Bowers for many years occupied a prominent and influential place in the life of the Universalist Church of the South. As the editor and publisher of our Souther paper, The Herald, he was known to all of our people, and he labored with devotion and self-sacrifice to build up the Cause.

Brother Bowers came to his death Sept. 9, 1911 through a painful accident which occurred in the town of Canon, Ga., where he resided, and which was his birth-place, and where he had spent the greater part of his life. He was born Oct. 25, 1851. His early life was spent in the Baptist Church and he was for a number of years a preacher of that faith, and when the church in Canon underwent a transition from the Baptist to the Universalist belief, he became the pastor, and was always a faithful Universalist. He made many missionary journeys through the South. In 1897 he purchased The Herald, which he managed for thirteen years, without receiving any personal compensation, until it was turned over to the new company in 1910. Few men have shown such practical devotion as did Mr. Bowers, whose memory will be gratefully held by the whole South.

Rev. George Thompson Knight, D.D., who died on Sunday, Sept. 10, 1911, was one of the ripest scholars of our history, as a Church, and even more than that, he proved himself one of the noblest men with which our ministry has been blessed. One of his closest friends said of him: "By the death of Professor Knight, the world of learning loses an accomplished scholar and profound thinker, Tufts College a beloved teacher, conspicuous for his power to inspire students, the Universalist Church a mind that had shapingly influenced scores of its able and cultured pulpit leaders, and the inner circle of his private life, a rarely sweet and lovable companion. It will be long before we shall look upon his like again." And this estimate is confirmed by all who knew this remarkable man.

George Thompson Knight was born in South Windham, Me., Oct. 29, 1850, was fitted for College and entered Tufts from which he graduated in 1872, and from the Divinity school in 1875. During the later years of his student life he supplied various pulpits of New England, but his tastes led him to the class room, and his conspicuous ability commanded the opportunity, and during the remainder of his life he fulfilled a royal destiny of training and inspiring other minds to think.

Two volumes from his pen have been published, and a great work on "Theology Old and New" which he had ready for the press at the time of his death will probably be issued during the year.

His wife, who was a daughter of the Rev. Dr. T. J. Sawyer, two sons and daughters, survive him.

The Rev. Dr. Andrew Willson our oldest minister in the Western Reserve, of Ohio, a man loved and honored by everybody, passed into the higher life at Ravena, Ohio, Friday, Nov. 10, 1911.

Andrew Willson was born in South Shenango, Pa., June 30, 1835. He was educated in the public schools, Kingsville Academy and Allegheny College, afterwards entering upon the study of law, but his taste drew him to the ministry and he prepared himself for that. He preached his first sermon in a schoolhouse near his Pennsylvania home, in 1859, and was settled in Willoughby, Ohio, in 1860, being ordained the same year. The story of Dr. Willson's life through the many years following, tells the story of heroic missionary service and not a few of our churches in Ohio are due to his splendid service as preacher and pastor. For fifty-two years he was a Universalist minister, and in that long period there are no wasted days In addition to his large service to the Church itself, it was largely due to his efforts that Buchtel College was founded and sustained. Nor did he neglect a duty of the citizen, but was associated with all good works of his town and state and his hand was upon many of the benevolences which blessed the community.

In the great service which Dr. Willson rendered, he proved himself an exceptional man as well as a successful minister. His life was the faithful exemplification of the Gospel he preached, and multitudes rise up and call him blessed.

THE AMERICAN STANDARD BIBLE

Edited by the American Revision Committee

The International Lesson Committee decided by a unanimous resolution to use the text of the American Standard Bible in the Uniform and new Graded Sunday School Lessons because it is more true to the original and requires less explanation than any other.

It is, therefore, used by the Sunday School periodicals published by the great denominational publishing houses and the Sunday School Times, and is also the standard text book for Bible Study Classes, Colleges, Universities, and Theological Seminaries.

The American Standard Bible has now been before the public for ten years, and it continues to grow in popular favor, faster than any translation before it ever did. The demand is so great that the publishers have made this version in eight sizes of type and over 200 styles of binding so as to meet every want. Prices, 35 cts. up.

DEAN ACADEMY

FRANKLIN, MASS.

An Endowed Boarding School for Young Women and Young Men. Students will find here an exceptional school building, delightfully located in a beautiful town; thorough and efficient training in every department of a broad culture, a home-like atmosphere and a loyal and helpful spirit. A commodious gymnasium under a competent instructor provides for the physical well being. The new Ray Science Building has a thoroughly equipped Laboratory and Museum. A new and enlarged library adds to the beauty and usefulness of the school.

The income from a large fund expended for the benefit of the pupils make terms very reasonable.

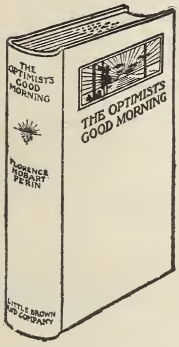
THE OPTIMIST'S GOOD MORNING

By FLORENCE HOBART PERIN



Size 6½ x 4½ inches, 385 pages. Price, in decorated cloth, $1.00 net; bound in white and gold, $1.25 net; in limp morocco binding, gilt top, $1.50 net.

THE happy title of this book does not altogether suggest its purpose and utility, though the book itself is true to its title. It is a book in which to begin each day of the year. Under each day is a noble sentiment, followed by a brief morning prayer. The selections are made, not uniformly, but very largely with reference to their optimistic quality. They breathe the spirit of hopefulness and courage. Free from cant phrases, the prayers are real prayers by the leading ministers of all denominations. The reading of selection and prayer will occupy not more than three or four minutes, and it is believed that many who would like to begin the day with an upward look, but think that they have not the time, will find in this home service book a sure aid to help them face the day with braver heart.
